1. Introduction

MarketsVox (SC) Ltd is a Company incorporated and registered under the laws of Seychelles with Company number 8430368-1. The Company is licensed and regulated as a Securities Dealer by the Financial Services Authority under Securities Dealer license number SD142.

2. Applicable Regulatory Framework and Purpose of this Policy

The formulation and adoption of this Policy is required under section 18(5)(a)(vi) of the Financial Consumer Protection Act of 2022, according to which the Company shall, before a purchase is made, provide the financial consumer in writing with a summary of the Company's privacy policy. The FCPA 2022 came into force with the aim of strengthening consumer protection and confidence when accessing financial services and products in Seychelles.

The purpose of this Policy is to provide a summary of the policies adopted in terms of disclosure of any client's information received as part of any contract arrangement that a client intends to enter into or enters into with the Company.

The Company is responsible for the protection of privacy and the safeguarding of clients' personal and financial information. By opening a trading account with the Company, the client hereby gives its consent to such collection, processing, storage and use of personal information as explained below.

3. Collection of Personal Data

During the account opening process for a demo or real trading account, the client is requested to provide the Company some Personal Data. The provision of the information submitted by the Client will enable the Company to evaluate the application pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations governing the provision of the services. The same information will also be used by the Company to contact the client regarding the offered services.

For further information on the non-public or sensitive data collected by the Company please refer to the Company's Confidentiality Policy.

4. Use of Personal Data

The Company collects and processes Personal Data which are required for the evaluation, establishment, and maintenance of the contractual relationship between the Company and the client. In some cases, the Company may also process the client's Personal Data to pursue its legitimate interests or those of third parties, provided that the client's interests and fundamental rights are not overridden by those of the Company or the third party.

In view of the above, the Company may use client's Personal Data for one or more of the following purposes:

- to confirm/verify the identity of a client;
- to process transactions;
- trading account management;
- for internal business as well as record keeping purposes;
- to analyze statistical data;
- to identify, assess, mitigate, prevent and investigate fraudulent activity of any kind that is forbidden by the relevant legislation;
- to defend possible legal claims and/or comply with court orders, judicial processes and or any other requirements of a competent authority.

The Company also needs to comply with the Anti-Money Laundering regulations therefore there are documents that must be kept to be able for the Company to demonstrate to the authorities that have acted in accordance with the legislation.

If there is no lawful basis for the usage of client's Personal Data as indicated above, the client's consent will be required.

For further information on the purpose for which Personal Data and other non-public consumer data is collected and used by the Company please refer to the Company's Confidentiality Policy.

5. Sharing and Transfer of Personal Data

The Company may share client's information with business partners and suppliers with whom it may have outsourced certain of the Company's business functions or cooperating with. In order to provide services to the client, the Company may be required to transfer client's Personal Data to parties located outside of Seychelles i.e., in the European Economic Area or in countries which may not have an equivalent level of data protection laws as in the Seychelles. Where this is the case, the Company will take reasonable steps to ensure the privacy of the client's Personal Data. By submitting Personal Data, the client agrees to the aforesaid transfer, storage, and processing of the client's information.

The Company may also share Personal Data with affiliates or any other company in the same group of the Company in the event such information is reasonably required in order to provide the products or services to the clients. The Company may share information with partners, affiliates and associates in order to offer additional similar products and services that meet client's needs, and which are delivered in a manner that is useful and relevant only where clients have authorized the Company to do so. In cases where client have been introduced by a third party, such third party may have access to client's information. Hence, clients hereby consent to the sharing of information with such third party.

All third parties with which the Company shares Personal Data are required to protect such Personal Data in accordance with all relevant legislation and in a manner similar to the way the Company protects the same. The Company will not share Personal Data with third parties which it considers will not provide its clients the required level of protection.

The Disclosure of client's Personal Data should be in line with the Confidentiality Policy of the Company. The client that has established a business relationship with the Company voluntarily consent to the disclosure of their non-public consumer data electronically in the form of a general agreement through the acceptance of the Client Services Agreement at the stage of opening their account.
